

APKIC Joined Thai E-Commerce Week to Witness the MOU Signing between HK and Thailand

Date: 2016/10/07
Venue: Bangkok, Thailand

The first from left is Ms. Surangkana Wayuparb Executive, Director & CEO, Electronic Transactions Development Agency, Ministry of Information and Communication Technology, Thailand, the second from left is Dr. Frank Tong, Chief Executive Officer of The Hong Kong Applied Science and Technology Research Institute.

The third from left is Ms. Surangkana Wayuparb Executive, Director & CEO, Electronic Transactions Development Agency, Ministry of Information and Communication Technology, Thailand, the fourth from left is Dr. Frank Tong, Chief Executive Officer of The Hong Kong Applied Science and Technology Research Institute, the fifth from left is Dr. Chaichana Mitrpant, Deputy Executive Director, Electronic Transactions Development Agency, Ministry of Information and Communication Technology, Thailand, the sixth from left is the Ms. Eva Chan, Secretary General of Asia PKI Consortium.

On 7th October 2016, Ms. Eva Chan, Secretary General of Asia PKI Consortium, was invited for the Thai E-Commerce Week held in Bangkok, Thailand and exchanged opinions with industrial experts and leaders from Thailand in searching into the opportunities and future of cross-border e-Commerce. At the exhibition, Ms. Eva Chan witnessed and supported the MOU signing ceremony between Hong Kong Applied Science and Technology Research Institute (ASTRI) and Electronic Transactions Development Agency (ETDA).

The signing of the MOU was intended to enhance the interoperability cooperation of applied technology between Hong Kong and Thailand to promote the secure development of online activities as well as to drive the cross-border e-Commerce development so as to facilitate financing, complement each other's advantages and to realize mutual benefit and win-win result.